

On Tuesday, January 28th our luncheon speaker will be: Education Director for TX Right To Life, Michaela Vaughan.

Michaela Vaughan grew up in a strong Pro-Life family and regularly participated in pro-life events in Texas. In college, she was accepted into Texas Right to Life's Dr. Joseph Graham Fellowship for College Pro-Life Leaders and Student for Life of America's Christian Leadership Fellowship. During her time at the University of St. Thomas in Houston, she started the Pro-Life club's scholarship for pregnant and parenting students. After graduation she worked in management consulting for a few years before feeling called to work in the Pro-Life movement full time. Michaela now works as the Director of Education for Texas Right to Life, which includes managing the Dr. Joseph Graham Fellowship, Team LIFE Camp, Convention for Life, and other Pro-Life community efforts and youth leadership programs. Michaela lives in Houston with her husband and their daughter, Lucy.
